

LOCAL SENATOR HEADS MEMORIAL DAY COMMITTEE

State Senator Donald P. McPherson, Jr., a representative of the Gettysburg camp of the Sons of Veterans on the local Memorial Day committee, was elected chairman of the 1950 Memorial Day group at an organization meeting held Thursday night at the Lentz American Legion post home, Baltimore street.

An invitation was extended by the group to President Harry S. Truman to participate in next year's services on May 30 and it was indicated by reports at the session that the President "does hope to" be present for the exercises.

If the President does attend the services it will be in keeping with a tradition of years standing that each president, during his tenure of office, attends the Gettysburg program. Truman next year will be in his second year as president in his own right. He first served out the term of Franklin D. Roosevelt, who died after election. Roosevelt was here in the second year of his first term as head of the national government.

Name Vice Chairman
Arthur W. Warman, representing both the Sons of Veterans and Lentz post of the American Legion, was named vice chairman of the general committee. The men named as chairmen of the various groups represented on the general committee will also become vice chairmen of the general group.

LeRoy H. Winebrenner was selected as parade chairman and marshal. Charles T. Zeigler, commander of the United Spanish War Veterans and one of the representatives from that organization, was named head of a committee to secure decorations for the rostrum at the cemetery. He was authorized to ascertain cost and types of bunting available, and to make purchases necessary so that the committee will have on hand its own bunting for the decorations. Previously bunting was borrowed from the American Legion, borough, or other organization. (Please Turn to Page 7)

TONY YOVICIN NAMED IN SUIT

Gardner Mulloy, of Coral Gables, Fla., tennis player, brought suit today in Dauphin county court to get back $500 he claims he loaned to Tony Yovicin, of Harrisburg, former Gettysburg college and University of Miami football player, according to the Associated Press.

But Earl Handler, Yovicin's attorney, said he plans a counter suit against Mulloy charging that the $500 was the first installment of $1,500 promised Yovicin in 1948 if he would attend the University of Miami.

Handler said his suit will claim that the $1,000 is still due.

Mulloy's attorney, Edward E. Knauss 3rd, said Mulloy "loaned" the $500 while Yovicin was attending Miami. He said the two men became acquainted when Mulloy was an instructor at a Virginia naval base.

Mulloy is now on a European tennis tour with several American amateurs. Yovicin graduated from Miami last year and was assistant football coach at Lower Paxton high school near here last fall.

RESTRICTIONS FOR JAP BEETLE CONTROL GO ON

O. W. Sweigard, of the Lancaster office, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, today announced that starting at 12:01 o'clock this morning certification is required for truckload shipments and refrigerator carlots of fruits and vegetables, as well as bulk shipments of cut flowers, moving from Adams county to destinations outside the Japanese beetle regulated area.

Local observations by bureau inspectors show that Japanese beetle adults are about to emerge in large numbers, Sweigard said, and the immediate hazard of flying adults infesting fruits, vegetables and cut flowers moving to non-infested states is such as to warrant imposition of the seasonal procedure.

Certification requirements will continue in the area until beetle abundance and activities decline, he said. An appropriate notice of their termination will be issued. Arrangements for securing the needed certifications can be obtained from Sweigard at his office, 18 S. W. End avenue, Lancaster, phone 2-5843.

Among sections in the beetle quarantine are Delaware, District of Columbia, all of Maryland except Allegany, Calvert, Garrett, St. Mary's and Washington counties; the New Jersey counties of Atlantic, Camden, Cape May, Cumberland, Gloucester and Salem; Pennsylvania counties of Adams, Chester, Delaware, Lancaster, Philadelphia and York; Virginia counties of Accomack, Northampton, Princess Anne, Norfolk, including cities of Portsmouth and Norfolk, districts of Sleepy Hole, Cypress and City of Suffolk in Nansemond county.

Hold Funeral Saturday For Louis A. Campanaro, Killed In Jeep-Truck Crash Thursday

Funeral services for Louis Anthony Campanaro, 23-year old Gettysburg college graduate and husband of Mrs. Barbara Wolff Campanaro, an expectant mother, North Washington street, fatally injured Thursday afternoon when his civilian jeep crashed into a highway department truck, will be held at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon from the Bender funeral home. Rev. Dr. Ralph R. Gresh, pastor of St. James Lutheran church and Rev. Robert Rau, Gettysburg college, will officiate. The body will be shipped to Yonkers, N. Y., for burial.

Campanaro, only son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Campanaro, of Yonkers, was en route to Harrisburg where he is a dance instructor at the Arthur Murray dance studio, when the accident happened at the intersection of the Harrisburg and the Mechanicsburg-Bowmansdale roads at Shepherdstown. He was traveling alone at the time and was scheduled to give a series of dance lessons Thursday night.

State Trooper Ralph W. Homan

said the truck, driven by Jesse Kitzner, 59, Carlisle R. D. 1, drove out from the side road and had almost cleared the intersection when the jeep crashed into the center of the truck frame. Campanaro apparently was thrown head first over the top of the open jeep, Homan said.

Truck Loaded With Stone

According to Trooper Homan there was an eye witness of the accident. Homan said John O. Bixler, of 607 Schuykill street, Harrisburg, a Pennsylvania Power and Light company lineman, was working atop a pole about 300 feet away at the time of the accident. Bixler said the truck stopped at the traffic sign before proceeding slowly across the road.

Campanaro had driven over the top of the Shepherdstown hill and was descending the down grade at a "fast rate of speed" when his jeep crashed into the truck which was on the left of the center of the highway, Bixler told Homan.

The truck, loaded with stone chips, was heading toward a resurfacing job on a stretch of Route 114 near Bowmansdale, Homan said.

Campanaro suffered a compound fracture of the skull and a crushed chest. He died in an ambulance en route to the Harrisburg hospital.

The deceased is survived by his parents and his widow.

Awarded 3 Medals

He was graduated from Roosevelt high school, Yonkers, N. Y., and served two years with the Army Air Corps, five months and 17 days of which were overseas. He was a staff sergeant and gun instructor. He entered service October 18, 1943, and was discharged October 31, 1945. He served in Normandy, northern France and the Rhineland. He was awarded the air medal, service medal and distinguished flying cross.

Campanaro entered Gettysburg college in January, 1946, and was graduated in August, 1948. He was a member of the TKE fraternity.

Mrs. Campanaro, the young man's widow, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Richard Wolff, York street.

PROSECUTION IN HISS TRIAL IS FINISHED TODAY

New York, June 17 (AP)—The government today rested its case against Alger Hiss, former State Department official accused of perjury to conceal evidence of espionage.

The prosecution completed its presentation in 14 trial days.

The only witness called this morning was Benjamin H. Firsheim, a stenographer who testified that he misinterpreted testimony which Whitaker Chambers made before the House un-American Activities committee August 25, 1948. Chambers, a one-time Communist courier, was the key prosecution witness in the trial.

Firsheim apparently was the "surprise" witness with whom the prosecution had announced it would wind up its case. He was the 33rd person to testify for the government.

Disputed Record

The House committee testimony figured in the searching cross-examination of Chambers by Lloyd Paul Stryker, Hiss' attorney.

Chambers disputed the stenographic record of the committee hearing which quoted him as saying that the Hiss home in Washington was on "Dent Place."

Firsheim vindicated Chambers on this point. He said there was a question in his mind as to what Chambers had said, but that he made the word "Dent" instead of "Balt" after conferring with a member of the committee staff.

Assistant U. S. Attorney Thomas F. Murphy had told newsmen after yesterday's climactic session of a "surprise" witness. Henry Julian Wadleigh, whose appearance also was a surprise, had just admitted that he stole U. S. secrets for Russia.

Admits His Part

Wadleigh, one-time associate of Hiss in the State Department, admitted on the stand yesterday that his Communist sympathies led him to turn over confidential documents for relay to Russian agents.

"I began to take out the documents and give them to unauthorized persons as soon as I joined the State Department in March, 1936," Wadleigh testified in a cultured, clipped voice.

The Oxford-educated economist, along with Hiss and three others, has been named by Whitaker Chambers as "sources" of information that Chambers said he relayed to prewar Soviet spies.

TEXAS SLAYER CALLED INSANE

La Grange, Tex., June 17 (AP)—Dr. Lloyd I. Ross, convicted San Antonio slayer, has been adjudged insane.

The physician was convicted October 23, 1947, in the slaying of Mrs. Gertrude York, wife of a San Antonio investment banker. The York family formerly lived at Scranton and Waynesboro, Pa.

He also was accused of murder in the deaths of Mrs. York's husband, Willard, and two other members of the family. Only one member of the family, Ann, then 13, escaped death in an ambush near New Brunfels, Tex., May 25, 1947.

Sentenced to Die

Ross was sentenced to die in the electric chair. An appeal was made from the sentence.

Two physicians testified yesterday that Ross now is permanently insane. Judge J. R. Puchner then halted the trial by instructing the jurors to find Ross insane. District Attorney J. Lee Dittert concurred in the ruling.

Thus Ross will be committed to a mental institution and escapes the electric chair. His attorney contended he was insane and that the shootings were prompted by the loss of Ross' savings of $150,000 which, it was said, Ross had entrusted to York for investment.

STOCKS DOWN

New York, June 17 (AP)—The stock market coasted down a gentle incline today. A mere breath of selling was enough to push prices lower. Declines, though, seldom exceeded minor fractions and numerous key stocks either failed to appear on the ticker tape or remained at Thursday's closing levels. Trading was skimpy and easily at the slowest rate of the week.

PENNSY EXPANS

Philadelphia, June 17 (AP)—The Pennsylvania railroad took stock of its multimillion dollar improvement program today and reported this is what has been added to the line since the end of World War II: More than 300 new passenger cars, 140 new Diesel-electric passenger and freight locomotives, 4,000 new freight cars and 426 new Diesel switching locomotives.

WAITKUS WILL PLAY AGAIN BUT NOT THIS YEAR

Chicago, June 17 (AP)—Eddie Waitkus will play major league baseball again—but probably not this season—says one of the physicians attending the seriously wounded Philadelphia Phillies' first baseman.

Dr. L. L. Braun, team physician for the Chicago Cubs, said it was "still uncertain" whether Waitkus, shot near the heart by an infuriated teen-age girl, will be back in the Phillies' lineup this season.

"But I am quite sure," Dr. Braun said, "he will be back playing baseball. Just when it will be I cannot say."

Condition "Good"
Waitkus has been in the major leagues since 1946, playing with the Cubs three years before he was traded to the Phillies last winter. He is currently leading the National League first basemen in the vote for the All-Star game next month.

The condition of the 28-year-old star first baseman was described as "good" today at the Illinois Masonic hospital, where he has been confined since he was shot early Wednesday. The hospital said he had "taken a turn for the better, but was not quite out of danger."

Girl In Jail
Waitkus was shot with a .22 caliber rifle by Miss Ruth Steinhagen, 19-year-old typist who was secretly in love with the bachelor ball player although she had never met him until she lured him to her room in the Edgewater Beach Hotel Tuesday night. She had told him in a letter and by telephone she wanted to tell him "something important."

The tall, dark-haired girl was removed to the Cook county jail in lieu of $25,000 cash bond after her arraignment in Felony Court yesterday on a charge of assault with intent to murder. Her hearing was continued to June 30 by Judge Matthew D. Hartigan, who also ordered she be examined by Dr. William H. Haines of the Criminal Court Behavior Clinic.

LAMOTTA GAINS TITLE; CERDAN HURTS SHOULDER

Detroit, June 17 (AP)—The "new" Jake LaMotta today holds the world middleweight boxing title he chased for eight years, but he doesn't know when he can cash in on the prize.

LaMotta, an official 10th round knockout winner over Marcel Cerdan of Casablanca at Briggs stadium last night, had a bad hand to show for his trouble. Cerdan, the dethroned champ, has a pulled shoulder muscle.

Jake probably will have x-rays taken of the puffed-up left mitt today. Cerdan's handlers said they would fly Marcel to New York today for further examination.

That leaves the return match—a must according to the original contract—up in the air.

Jake must meet Marcel again in his first defense with each receiving 30 per cent of the gate in his defense. The site and date have yet to be determined.

LaMotta's 15 per cent cut last night amounts to about $19,171, but he has to leave his money in Escrow until he makes his defense. Marcel will get 40 per cent or about $51,124 of the net gate of $127,810.

It was the first championship defense for the courageous, 32-year-old Frenchman, who saw his title slip away after he suffered an injury to his shoulder in the opening round of the scheduled 15-round bout.

Cerdan was able to use his left only once or twice after the injury and he took a terrific body beating before Referee Johnny Webber finally halted the fight after the ninth round bell.

Webber was summoned to Cerdan's corner by the Frenchman's handlers who explained that their man was in acute pain.

After Dr. Joseph Cahalan of the Michigan Boxing commission examined the disabled fighter, Webber called LaMotta over and raised his arm in token of victory.

Under Michigan rules, the fight was entered in record books as a 10th round knockout.

WILLIAMS HIGH IN FANS' VOTES

The poll will select the fans' starting lineups for the 16th annual all-star baseball game at Brooklyn, July 12. Voting ends at midnight June 29.

Other members of the voting big six include Robinson, Brooklyn second baseman, second in the race with 45,258; Ralph Kiner, Pittsburgh outfielder, third with 43,915; George Kell, Detroit third baseman, fourth with 42,806; Stan Musial, St. Louis Cardinals outfielder, fifth with 41,628; and Tom Henrich, New York Yankees outfielder, sixth with 40,702.

AWAKENING OF TRIBE TO GET YANKEE TEST

By JOE REICHLER
(AP Sports Writer)

Have the World Champion Cleveland Indians awakened from their season-long lethargy and gone on the warpath? The answer should be forthcoming after their three-game series with the league-leading New York Yankees, which starts today.

Heartened by five straight victories over the Yankees and Boston Red Sox, the teams generally regarded as their toughest opposition, Cleveland followers today were certain that their favorites finally had straightened themselves out.

They pointed with pride to the Indians' three-game sweep of the Red Sox in Boston, a feat, no club has been able to do in years. Prior to that, the Indians had been able to win only five out of 18 away from home for a miserable .278 percentage.

Those Cleveland die-hards also pointed out that the Tribe's vaunted pitching staff appeared to be coming around. Three of Cleveland's "Big Four"—Bob Lemon, Bob Feller and Gene Bearden—won their games during the victory skell.

Mike Garcia gained his second decision in five days yesterday when he pitched the Indians to a 6-3 triumph over the Red Sox. However, he needed help from Alton Benton in the seventh when he wilted from the intense heat.

The victory enabled the fourth-place Indians to pick up half a game on the Yankees, who were held to a split in their doubleheader with the Chicago White Sox. A gap of six and a half games separates the two clubs. Boston is in seventh place, nine games behind.

New York's fifth-place Giants moved up to within four games of the top although their scheduled doubleheader with the Reds in Cincinnati was washed out by rain.

Chasing Lefty Joe Hatten with a four-run barrage in the seventh inning, the Cards won the rubber contest of the three-game series before 28,897 fans, one of the largest week-day turnouts in St. Louis in years.

Lou Klein, the first of the Mexican league jumpers to appear in a big league box score, slammed a single while pinch-hitting for winning Pitcher Red Munger in the seventh to keep a four-run rally alive.

Phil's Beat Cubs Again

Pete Reiser homered in the fifth to break a 2-2 tie and send the Braves on their way to a 7-2 victory over the Pirates in Pittsburgh. Vern Bickford spaced five hits for his eighth victory, his third over the Cubs. Ray Poat was the loser.

Relief Pitcher Jim Konstanty singled across the run in the ninth inning to win his own game as the Phils nipped the Cubs in Chicago, 4-3.

Fred Sanford, purchased from the St. Louis Browns for $100,000 last winter, went the route for the first time this season as he pitched the Yankees to a 5-4 victory and a split with the White Sox. The Sox had won the opener, 10-6, scoring nine runs in the first two innings, against Tommy Byrne and Clarence Marshall.

Eddie Joost, Philadelphia's sensational shortstop, hammered his 15th home run, drove in two runs and scored three to lead the Athletics to a 7-3 triumph over Hal Newhouser and the Detroit Tigers.

Sid Hudson doled out five hits in pitching the Washington Senators to a 5-0 victory over the St. Louis Browns in the only night game in the majors.

Interstate League

(By The Associated Press)

This Wilmington team is going to take some catching. The front-running Interstate league Blue Rocks licked Lancaster with the greatest of ease last night to up their margin to 5 1/2 games over Trenton.

Wilmington clubbed Red Sweeney for 12 hits and an 8 to 2 victory. Jack Brittin, a righthander, pitched the distance and received fine support from his outfielders who snared no less than 11 outs.

Allentown checked in with its third straight win by blanketing Trenton 2 to 0. Southpaw George Dries notched his sixth win of the season with a two-hitter. He struck out 9 and walked only three.

Sunbury won the opening game of its cellar series with Hagerstown and now is only 1/2 game out of seventh place. The score was 7 to 2 with a second game rained out. Joe Mellendick, Sunbury left fielder, hit safely in his 20th consecutive game.

York and Harrisburg divided a doubleheader with York winning the opener 1 to 0 behind the four-hit pitching of Bill Stratton. Lefty Piercy held York to seven hits to win the nightcap for Harrisburg, 4 to 2.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, June 17 (AP)—Jersey Jones never was averse to getting a little publicity for his own heavy-weight, even if it involved mentioning some rivals. . . . And it's with that in mind that Jersey offers a size-up of the heavyweight prospects. . . . "The future of the division certainly doesn't depend on the current crop of miscellany—the likes of Ezzard Charles, Jersey Joe Walcott, Joey Maxim, Lee Savold, Bruce Woodcock, etc.," he explains. . . . Jersey's candidate is 22-year-old Maynard Jones (definitely no relation) of Wilmington, Del. . . .

Manager Jones tabs him as "fast, clever and a stiff puncher, but handicapped by difficulty in getting work." Jersey doesn't mention that at times he's cussed Maynard for being "unreliable" and wandering off to Wilmington instead of staying here and staying in shape. . . . Here's the rest of the list: "Roland LaStarza—a good boxer but a bit too much on the cautious side. . . . Joe Chesnut—probably the shiftest boxer among the newcomers, but also too cautious. . . . Johnny Wilson—good boxer and stiff puncher; he hadn't been beaten before Maynard licked him. . . . Rocky Marciano—being carefully nursed along; is built along squatty lines and doesn't know much about boxing, but socks with considerable emphasis. . . . Johnny Holman—a big, strong kid and a robust cloutier; fighting only a year or so. . . . Doesn't sound very exciting, but we've seen the time when you couldn't find that many names."

Los Angeles, June 17 (AP)—Another in the long series of sadistic sex murders since the "Black Dahlia" slaying 2 1/2 years ago confronted Los Angeles homicide officers today.

The garroted, mutilated body of a 28-year-old housekeeper and mother, Mrs. Louise Coulter Springer, was found yesterday in her husband's convertible car, abandoned on a street on the near south side, only a block and a half from where the "Black Dahlia's" body was found. There was evidence of brutal assault, officers said.

Coroner Ben Brown tentatively gave strangulation as the cause of death. Mrs. Springer had been strangled with a sash cord, her 99-pound body thrown in the back seat of the car and covered with a tarpaulin, investigators reported.

The husband, Laurence G. Springer, said his wife disappeared Monday night when he left her sitting in the car while he went back into the store where she worked for her glasses. In a missing persons report filed then, he said both his wife and the car were gone when he returned.

Autopsy surgeons said that Mrs. Springer had probably been killed within an hour or two after that. A resident of the neighborhood where the car was found—Don Graham—told police the car was parked there by a man wearing a gray uniform resembling that worn by a navy chief petty officer. Two other persons said they saw a curly-haired man throw the canvas over the back seat.

Police said the murder method resembled the unsolved slaying of Elizabeth Short, the Black Dahlia, on January 15, 1947.

Eastern League

(By The Associated Press)

The leading Albany Senators go out at Scranton tonight after their third straight series from threatening challengers in the Eastern league.

Pinky May's mob, unwavering under pressure by other first division clubs, evened their three-game set with Scranton last night, 6-3. Old Ori Arntzen, with 10 wins and no defeats, probably will pitch the rubber game tonight.

The Albany margin swelled to four games last night as the Wilkes-Barre Barons lost to Hartford, 10-5. Utica made it two straight over Williamsport, 11-4, at the expense of Tiger Ace, Ted Kapusinski. George Selkirk's Binghamton Triplets stopped Elmira again, 12-4, as Tom Gorman tossed an eight-hitter.

Brooklyn (Fort Hamilton)—Johnny Dell, 137, Brooklyn, outpointed Jimmy Warren, 134 1/2, Brooklyn, 10.

Portland, Me.—Johnny Peverara, 153, Portland, Me., stopped Roger Whynott, 155, Halifax, 3.

Prague, Czechoslovakia, June 17 (AP)—Czechoslovak newspapers have been told by Communist authorities to get the obituary of Premier Georgi Dimitrov of Bulgaria into type, a Czech spokesman said today.

Dimitrov is in Russia, officially because of his poor health. The newspapers were told his condition is so critical "the news of his death" is expected to be announced within two or three days," the newspaper employee said.

BENDERSVILLE TO MEET ACES HERE SATURDAY

The Gettysburg Aces will go after their fourth straight victory Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock when Bendersville will be met on the college field in an Adams County league game.

Coach Harpster's team is now in a tie with Littlestown for fourth place in the league standing.

Hanover's league-leading outfit will be host to the second-place Conecago VFW in a game which shapes up as one of the outstanding tilts on the schedule. Hanover eked out a 1-0 victory at Arendtsville on May 14 in the first meeting of the teams.

Other games will find Fairfield at Emmitsburg, Littlestown at New Oxford, and Orttanna at York Springs.

The tightening South Penn race offers a full schedule of contests on Sunday afternoon.

Included on the program are the following games: Cashtown at Barlow, New Oxford at Wensville, Heidelsburg at Bendersville, Bonneauville at Granite, Hunterstown at Brushtown and Greenmount at Green Springs.

This evening at 6:15 o'clock Bendersville will play at Hunterstown in the playoff of a game postponed from May 22.

Next Tuesday evening the second round of twilight games in the Adams County league will be played as follows: Gettysburg at Fairfield, New Oxford at Orttanna, York Springs at Conecago, Hanover at Bendersville, and Emmitsburg at Littlestown.

The Penn-Maryland loop card for Sunday follows: Middleburg at Emmitsburg, McSherrystown at Littlestown, Blue Ridge Summit at Taneytown, Harney at Wakefield, and Thurmont at Hanover.

YOUNG MOTHER IS MUTILATED IN LOS ANGELES

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS
SMALL SPACE

The brain in the human head occupies small space, but think of the power that a single brain so often wields! Lincoln's Gettysburg speech was confined to 267 words, yet Edward Everett, the main orator of the day at the Gettysburg ceremonies later wrote Lincoln as follows: "I should be glad if I could flatter myself that I came as near to the central idea of the occasion in two hours as you did in two minutes."

I have seen about seven of the original paintings of Vermeer, outstanding as a favorite of mine of all artists, and these paintings are all small—things of rare beauty, exquisite, perfect in execution of color, arrangement and feeling.

I recently read of Louis Agassiz, the great scientist and naturalist, that he spent one summer "almost halfway across his back yard." And my friend Edwin Way Teale has a regular world in small space in his back yard which he calls his "Insect Garden." Here it is that he watches, makes notes, and photographs the inhabitants of this world of his, later putting it all into a book, thus making us his honored guests.

The humming-bird takes small space, yet it is one of the most beautifully exquisite birds in all the bird world. At rest, viewed from one's field glasses, it resembles the rarest of jewels, matching the colors of an Australian black opal, or giving out sun-reflected mystery as does the star in an oriental sapphire.

Precious things take small space. So do great thoughts. Every great business usually starts in small space. You can plant an acorn in an inch of space—but how the years expand that space, finally bringing about a tree of large proportions and inviting the admiration and use of man, beast and bird.

A single shelf of selected books can be made sufficient for anyone to gain a liberal education. Indeed this was the idea of the famous Dr. Eliot five-foot bookshelf. We can see a great deal, learn much, and do much—in small space. It isn't the space, however, so much as what that space represents, and what comes out of it.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Outwear The Accident!"

Hotel Is Damaged In $100,000 Blaze
Carlisle, Pa., June 17 (AP)—The $100,000 Grand View hotel at the Carlisle entrance of the Pennsylvania Turnpike was badly damaged by fire last night. One fireman was overcome by smoke fighting flames burning between the walls and floors.

Arthur Nydick, a co-owner of the hotel, said there were no guests at the time he discovered the fire. He said the fire apparently started from wiring to an outside sign.

Asbury Park, N. J., June 17 (AP)—Kids from 62 American cities gather here Sunday to shoot for the annual national marble championship. The five-day tournament will be followed by the crowning of the champ on June 24. The participants are the winners of local and regional eliminations.

ARCHBISHOP IS HELD PRISONER BY COMMUNISTS

Prague, Czechoslovakia, June 17 (AP)—Archbishop Joseph Beran, head of Czechoslovakia's 9,000,000 Roman Catholics, was a virtual prisoner in his own palace today, as the Communist government's war on the church appeared nearing a climax.

A reliable informant described the Prague archbishop's status as "house arrest."

Two priests from Archbishop Beran's consistory have been arrested and taken away by police after a raid on the consistory section of the archbishop's palace in which police tried to seize church records.

Neither priests nor laymen could get in to see the archbishop without undergoing a police identification.

The customary armed guard stood outside Archbishop Beran's palace. Use Secret Police

More significantly, the reception desk and telephone switchboard inside the palace gate were manned by secret police.

Two Associated Press correspondents who tried to see the archbishop were told by personnel at the reception desk that "the archbishop says 'No.'"

At the same time a Czech in clerical garb was attempting to gain admission. The reception personnel demanded from him full identification papers and other data before they would consent to telephone the archbishop for an audience.

There was no way of knowing whether they were actually phoning to him.

This close surveillance of his office tended to confirm reports that in the past two days even high diplomatic officials have been unable to gain entrance to the archbishop.

It was known, however, that two days ago all the bishops of the country were gathered in the palace for a conference with the archbishop.

Archbishop Beran for some months has fought against a government campaign to take over schools and abolish church papers.

In recent weeks he has sent out a number of clerical letters breathing defiance of government decrees involving the church-state conflict. In one message he hinted that excommunication would be imposed against "collaborators."

The government's cry against the Catholic hierarchy is that the Vatican interferes with Czechoslovak sovereignty.

Vatican sources have likened the Archbishop Beran issue to a similar campaign in Hungary just before the arrest of Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty.

PENSIONS ISSUE IN STEEL TALKS

Pittsburgh, June 17 (AP)—Is "big steel" obligated to discuss pensions in contract negotiations with the CIO-United Steelworkers? On that question the conference between U. S. Steel Corp. and the union resumed today.

The two factions yesterday made their stand on the issue very clear. The company said legally no. USW promptly answered morally and legally yes.

Here is the company's viewpoint as disclosed in a statement released yesterday after a three-hour conference by John A. Stephens, U. S. Steel vice president in charge of industrial relations.

"The issue is solely whether a labor contract means what it says, or whether one party to such a contract can disregard its terms at will. Our labor contract with this union continues until April 30, 1950. These contracts are renewable at this time only with respect to rates of pay and insurance benefits. By the terms of these contracts they cannot be reopened to permit the union to make a pension demand."

Philip Murray, CIO and Steelworker president answered that one this way. "It is incredible that this great corporation should quibble and engage itself and the conference with legal sophistry on this issue."

Murray further elaborated the union position at a news conference where he said, "we're opening the contract on wages and wages are pensions." He said the corporation was "morally, legally and contractually obligated to bargain" with the union on pensions.

Ana Pauker Is 'In Bad' With Moscow

Zurich, Switzerland, June 17 (AP)—Ana Pauker, firebrand Communist who runs Romania's foreign affairs, is in disfavor with Moscow over money matters, the Swiss weekly Weltwoche said today.

The independent newspaper, one of the most widely circulated in Switzerland, said Foreign Minister Pauker deposited funds of the Romanian Communist party in Swiss banks without advising the Cominform (Communist International Information Bureau).

This, said the newspaper, came to light recently with the trial of Solovian Vitanu, Romanian on trial at Winterthur, Switzerland, for political and economic spying in this country. The Romanians have protested the trial, which is now going on.

JESUS RISES FROM THE DEAD
By Rev. Howard R. Gold, D.D.
Margaret C. Gold

Mark 16: 2-7; John 21: 3-4, 7-12

Memory selection: Thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

—I Corinthians 15:57

In this next to last lesson on the "Life of Christ" we see the resurrected Lord walking, talking and eating with His disciples. The Easter lesson, as you recall, was on the subject of immortality. The events recorded for particular consideration here include: The women at the tomb early on Resurrection Morn; the angel's announcement and message; the return of the fishermen-disciples to their nets; Jesus preparing breakfast for them on the seashore.

No one can fully describe the Resurrection of Christ. Even the Bible does not give an account and Matthew is the only evangelist who speaks of the event itself. The miracle of the empty tomb is too mysterious for human mind to grasp. We simply know that our Redeemer lives and reigns in the hearts of men; that His victory over death has brought us the hope of eternal life.

At the Tomb

It is believed that two groups of women went early to the tomb in the garden of Joseph of Arimathea, more in a spirit of devotion to their Lord than for any actual service they might render. According to Mark one group consisted of Mary Magdalene, Mary, mother of James and Salome. They wondered who would roll away the stone, as it was customary in the East to seal the tombs. Imagine their amazement when they discovered the stone was already rolled away and a young man standing by! The angel said, "Ye seek Jesus, the Nazarene, who hath been crucified; he is risen; he is not here." As the frightened women turned to go he added a message for Jesus' disciples: He would go ahead of them into Galilee and see them there as He had told them.

While walking in the garden Mary Magdalene saw a Man whom she thought was a gardener, so she inquired if he knew where they had taken her Lord. When the Man spoke her name, "Mary," she suddenly recognized the risen Savior. Joyfully and fearfully she hurried back to tell Peter and John the incredible story. But would the disciples believe it?

Other Appearances

There were a number of appearances of Jesus besides those to the women. About 10 are recorded in the 45-day period between the Resurrection and the Ascension. On the evening of the first day of the week Jesus walked part way to Emmaus with Cleopas and another man but these wayside companions did not recognize Him until He broke bread at supper. That same evening He appeared to 10 of the disciples. A week later He returned to them again and spoke to Thomas who doubted the Resurrection.

Paul lists one appearance where over 500 people saw Jesus at one time. It was Paul who really interpreted the Resurrection for the Christian Church. He was the last person to whom Christ appeared—"the least of the apostles." "It is no longer I that live," he wrote to the Galatians, "but Christ liveth in me."

Breakfast With Jesus

The disciples did not accept the marvel of the Resurrection immediately nor understand its full meaning. It took them some time to forget the horrors of the cross and their utter hopelessness. So when Peter decided to return to his fishing, the others who were fishermen followed. But gradually they acquired a new awareness.

At daybreak one morning as they were casting a short distance from shore Jesus appeared, standing on the beach. They heard His familiar voice that commands obedience. John said to Peter, "It is the Lord." In his joy and eagerness Peter grabbed his tunic and swam for shore. The others followed in the boat dragging their net full of fishes. Jesus had kindled a fire, fish were broiling and bread was ready for breakfast. What a happy reunion! Forgotten was the sad march to Calvary! Jesus called to the seven men, "Come break your fast."

Questions that crowded to their lips remained unasked for now they believed He was the Savior. After seeing His beloved face again they knew that death had no power to hold Him. Their lives were suddenly made new in the light of His presence. There was no uncertainty anymore. They realized they had a gospel to preach, the gospel of salvation through Jesus Christ.

"Now that the Christ is risen. Now with the darkness gone. The road leads out before us. Upward, and on and on."

Questions On The S.S. Lesson

2. To whom did Jesus appear first?
3. What does the Resurrection signify?

5. What cleared their minds and hearts?
6. How did this reunion with Jesus affect them?

Answers

RELIGION WILL PLAY BIG ROLE EAST'S FUTURE

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)
Out of mystic India comes a story so strange that it reads like fantasy. Attention is called to it here because it epitomizes a situation which I believe will play a vital part in the great war of the ideologies developing in the Orient.

On July 1 the old and princely state of Travancore will combine with the adjoining principality of Cochín and the 36-year-old maharajah of Travancore will become titular head. He will be responsible to the new government of India.

There's nothing startling in this transaction, of course, because some 565 principalities of India are being absorbed by the New Delhi government. The strange part is this:

For 200 years the real ruler of Travancore has been the Hindu god Padmanabha, and the maharajahs have acted as stewards of the deity. The princes have sworn allegiance only to the god, and every night have deposited the keys of the state treasury at the god's feet in token of this, picking the keys up in the morning.

Few Atheists
It took the Indian government about a year to persuade the present maharajah to change the status of his state. He was fearful that he would be committing blasphemy if he swore allegiance to the Indian constitution or agreed to alter the boundaries of his state.

The skeptical reader may say that the prince was merely stalling to avoid changing the status of his state. However, your columnist accepts the prince's explanation as sincere, having spent much time in India and knowing how intensely religious both the Hindus and the Moslems are. I have seen one of the greatest of the Indian rulers — a highly cultured man with a Western education — prostrate on the temple floor before a Hindu idol. He was a very religious man, and his fervor was typical.

Religion plays a major part in the lives of both Hindus and Moslems. It not only is spiritual but in many respects dominates the ordinary ways of daily life, even in the matter of food and drink. The same may be said of various other religions in that heavily populated part of our world. There are few atheists in the Far East.

LEWIS ORDERS MINERS BACK TO PITS MONDAY

Pittsburgh, June 17 (AP)—John L. Lewis has ordered his 480,000 United Mine Workers back to the pits on Monday.

John Busarello, president of District No. 5 of the UMW, announced yesterday he had agreed to schedule Monday.

Said Busarello: "The telegram was short—just a few words and simply requested the end of the walkout on schedule. That's what I expected, of course."

Lewis, who now is in the midst of new contract negotiations with the industry, called the walkout to "stabilize" the industry. The contract expires June 30.

To Work Five Days
Actually the miners will work only five days and then get another week off. On June 25 they start their annual paid vacation. They receive $100 apiece.

Meanwhile, a large group of coal operators locked heads today to map strategy for forthcoming contact talks with Lewis.

The session includes the northern, midwestern and far western operators, President George H. Love, of Pittsburgh Consolidation Coal Co., announced.

No date for start of talks with this group as yet as been set. Lewis already has swapped opening remarks with soft coal operators and the U. S. Steel Corp., owner of extensive mines. Talks with anthracite operators will begin July 7.

Says Dismissal Plea Is Going Unheeded

Washington, June 17 (AP)—A plea for dismissal of Paul Griffith of Uniontown, Pa., as special assistant to Secretary of Defense Louis Johnson has gone unheeded, says Rep. Augustine Kelley, of Greensburg, Pa. The Pennsylvania Democrat told a reporter he protested the appointment to Sen. McGrath (D-R. I.), Democratic national chairman, and McGrath suggested he talk to Johnson.

"I made my protest to the proper man," Kelley said, "and if he doesn't choose to do anything about it, I can't. But I always will be against Griffith."

The fact that Griffith worked against the Democrats throughout Pennsylvania last fall was listed by Kelley as the basis for his objection. "If he had his way," Kelley said, "President Truman would not have been elected and neither would any other Democrat."

BILLIONS OF DOLLARS STOLEN BY

PARIS PARLEY IS EXTENDED THRU MONDAY

By ARTHUR GAVSHON
Paris, June 17 (AP)—The Big Four foreign ministers have stretched their unofficial deadline to make another stab at reaching accords on a snarled up Austrian independence treaty and a German trade pact.

Deadlocked early today after a grueling series of 11th hour sessions, the ministers recessed until Sunday and set still another meeting for Monday. The parley had been expected to end last night.

Informed observers said agreement on the German question seems near. They said the issue has boiled down to East-West differences of principle.

Hope for some sort of agreement was bolstered by the fact that the ministers extended their meetings. The German question hinges on a trade and transport accord, over which the ministers have been wrangling for days.

Austrian Treaty Tough
The situation has been complicated by the four-week-old Berlin rail strike, which is still on.

The Austrian treaty promises to be a long, arduous task. Even if the ministers settle their Austrian differences, the pact would take some months to write. Probably it would not be ready for signature until fall, when the ministers are reported planning to reconvene in New York.

An Austrian treaty might widen the gulf between Russia and Yugoslavia's Premier Marshal Tito. Tito's government has put forth several war claims on Austria, which Russia in the past has backed. If the treaty is signed, Russia will have withdrawn that backing.

The West believes this move Tito closer towards them in an economic sense at least.

Blocked By Red Claims
Furthermore, the Austrian treaty would help stabilize the overall European situation by relaxing tension. This would enable the countries of Western Europe to concentrate more on economic recovery than on military preparedness. The West thinks economic health in their part of Europe is the best possible antidote to Communism.

The big thing blocking an Austrian settlement is understood to be Russia's claims for properties in east Austria that had been taken over by the Nazis and are now considered by the Russians to be Nazi assets.

These include oil wells, oil exploration rights and the vast properties of the Danubian Steamship company.

New Hay Shown At State College

State College, Pa., June 17 — A new hay which thrives in poor soil and withstands dry weather is being shown off today at the agricultural open house program at the Pennsylvania State college.

The showing of the new hay was a feature of the three-day program which yesterday attracted 7,000 farmers from throughout the state. Similar to alfalfa in culture and feed value, the new hay is called birdsfoot trefoil.

Also on display are new lettuce varieties—Pennlake and Early Great Lakes—which were developed at the college this year.

The open house ends today.

About the toad's only protective weapon is a milky fluid it gives off which is obnoxious to dogs.

Chapter 19

Remembering that it was part of his duties as outlined by Jeb King to keep the squatters under observation, he spent the rest of that week scouting the south edge of the valley.

He traced trails out and found that, peculiarly or not, as one wished to regard it, they invariably led to some other ravine or gully significantly close to Chuck Gale's ranch.

This time he found one of those hidden parks and in it he found quite a number of cattle. Painstakingly he rode about, examining brands, and finally he cut out a cow which wore the Crown brand of Jeb King. Just one, but that was enough. She was being used, he judged, for breeding. He didn't risk searching further.

Jeff was back in Cougar by noon on Saturday, and there at his desk in the Town Hall he reviewed his findings and reached certain conclusions.

He told his deputy, "It's Saturday and Chuck Gale ought to be somewhere about town. Go out and see if you can find him. Tell him I want to see him here, alone."

Within fifteen minutes Jeff heard the thump of boots on the stairs and Chuck Gale halted in the doorway.

Jeff nodded to him. "Come in, Chuck, and sit down. I want to have a heart-to-heart talk with you."

Chuck glanced about, looked behind into the hall, then came in and closed the door.

"What you want to talk about?" he asked, as he seated himself.

"Cattle," Crown called. "I need a little advice, and I think you're the man who can furnish it."

"Yeah?" Chuck was watching him suspiciously.

"Yes. Here's my problem: The Crown has been losing stock right along, a little at a time."

Chuck's face was as stony as ever, but his hard eyes were glinting. "Go on," he said.

"Sure. Now suppose I should get the idea that the nesters along the fringe of the valley were slipping Jeb's stock away one at a time. Suppose I nosed around and found trails leading up into the hills to some parks pretty close to the headquarters of a certain rancher. Suppose that I even found some Crown breeding stock mixed with the stock of that rancher. In that case, Chuck, what would you advise me to do?"

Chuck grinned sardonically. "That's easy. Get a big posse and go up there and call for a showdown."

Jeff nodded. "That was my first thought, but there are several objections to such a course. In the first place, it would mean that somebody on both sides would get hurt, maybe killed. In the second place, the responsibility for that attack would be with me, and if that certain rancher pointed out that he didn't own these parks, that they were open to anybody who wanted to graze cattle there, that the brands on the cattle hadn't been worked over, I'd be in a tough spot and the town of Cougar, as my employer, might be open to suit for damages."

Chuck's grin broadened. "You don't say! Never thought of that." Jeff was quite sure that he had thought of it. "You didn't? Well, there it is."

"Mister, you don't need any advice from me. You know that you ain't got a case against this rancher. He ain't rustlin' or handlin' rustled stock, for as long as the brands ain't changed he can't sell that stock. And if he can't sell 'em, what'd be the use of havin' them?"

"Well, he might use them to breed. Especially if they were particularly good stock. Calves, you know, are born without brands or earmarks. As soon as they were weaned he could slap his own brand on them and throw them in with his own stuff and nobody'd know the difference." He eyed Chuck steadily. "Now if I had happened up there at calving time and found a calf with a Crown Cow, and later I found that cow without the calf, I might have something to go on. Or if one of those calves happened to find its way back to the mother and was running around with her bearing this rancher's brand, there'd be a good excuse for starting something."

"Reckon you got somethin' there." "Uh-huh. That being the case, what would you advise me to do?"

Chuck sat there looking at him, and Jeff thought there was a hint of admiration in his eyes. He cleared his throat and got up.

"Tyler, I sure don't know what to tell you; but it looks to me as though you'd nail that feller makin' a mistake some time. That's is, if he is usin' his neighbor's stock to breed little cows for himself. Some day you're bound to catch him payin' off, or mebbe one of them calves might find its way back to its ma, like you said, Reckon if I was you I'd just pass a hint on to that rancher and tell him to think it over right serious. He might—I say might—figger that it's safer to stick to his own stock in the future, even if it is slower. That all you want with me—just my opinion?"

"That's all, Chuck. I'm much obliged to you."

"Don't mention it," Chuck turned to the door, then stopped and turned back. "Found out who poisoned yore Herefords yet?"

"No. I thought I had a lead, but it petered out."

Chuck nodded. "Keep a-pluggin'. You ain't so dumb as some folks think you are."

This time he did leave.

"IF WE FORGET TO THANK YOU — YOUR PURCHASE IS ON THE HOUSE"

FBI ASKED TO CHECK ARTICLE ON ATOM BOMBS

Washington, June 17 (AP)—The Atomic Energy Commission will ask the FBI to check an article on atomic security in this month's "Nation's Business" to see if the story itself violates security regulations.

Commission Chairman David E. Lilienthal indicated yesterday that he thinks it may be a violation.

He described the article to the Senate-House Atomic committee as "inaccurate," as well as "reckless and irresponsible," and said it refers to "the most highly classified" information.

"We are consulting at the earliest possible date with J. Edgar Hoover, director of the FBI, about possible security violations," Lilienthal said. The article said, among other things, that the United States "should have" about 400 new atomic bombs.

Author Welcomes Probe

"Nation's Business" is the official magazine of the United States Chamber of Commerce. As such, a note says, it "carries notices and articles in regard to the Chamber's activities, in all other respects the Chamber cannot be responsible for the contents thereof or for the opinions of writers."

In Albuquerque, N. M., the writer of the atomic story, William Bradford Huie, commented: "What I have written has been part of an effort to inform the American people of mismanagement. I welcome any investigation the FBI chooses to make."

It was charges of "incredible mismanagement" by Senator Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) which brought Lilienthal before the Congressional group to defend the commission's operations.

May Probe Leaks

But even Hickenlooper supported Lilienthal against the statement in Huie's article that the commission chairman "doesn't have the stomach to go about the grim business of producing atomic weapons."

Said Hickenlooper: "I know of no time when Mr. Lilienthal has been restless or impatient about bomb making."

Lilienthal said the statement was "contrary to the record of the commission" and added that it reflected falsely "upon my patriotism and my stomach."

The Huie article brought a demand from Rep. Price (D-Ill.) that the committee investigate "leaks" in atomic information.

Five States Pass Depression-Style Relief Laws And Seven Cities Take Action

UNEMPLOYMENT, RISING RELIEF COSTS BLAMED

Washington, June 17 (AP)—Rising unemployment and swelling relief rolls have led five states to pass depression-style relief laws and at least seven cities to revive "work relief" projects.

But an Associated Press survey today suggested no national emergency. It found most states certain they could handle their relief load in stride.

It indicated joblessness has dwindled or stabilized in at least ten states in recent weeks or months. It showed that, almost everywhere, unemployment insurance has been a "cushion" to keep most laid-off workers off "poor relief" until they found new jobs.

No National Crisis
An inside-government memorandum made available to A.P. supports these findings. It says country-wide statistics "do not reflect the emergence of any new crisis." The report adds:

"The current relief situation does not appear to be one which requires (federal) action beyond that already recommended by the President."

President Truman has proposed federal grants for "home relief" to match state aid to payless families, on the same basis as the federal funds now used for the blind, the aged, and dependent children. Officials say it would cost $230,000,000 a year, and more in bad times.

Mr. Truman said yesterday he does not consider the rise in unemployment and the dip in business a crisis, although total unemployment rose in May to 3,289,000.

Survey 38 States
Neither does the chairman of his Council of Economic Advisers, Dr. Edwin G. Nourse, but Nourse declared in a speech that a "continued downswing" in business is possible. It is too soon to say, the economist added, whether the outcome will be a leveling-off, a new inflation, or a "real recession."

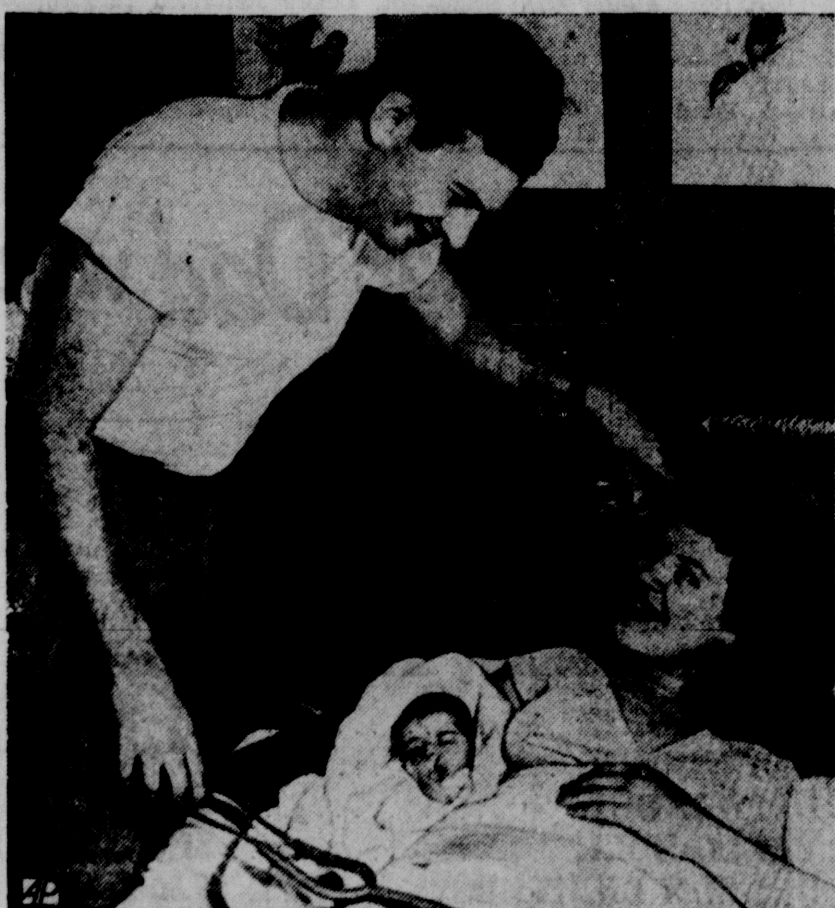

The Associated Press survey covered 38 states from which data were quickly available. In almost all of them, officials reported rises in the last year in both the relief burden and the number of people drawing unemployment pay.

Five states voted special laws to help cities and counties cope with the relief problem—Ohio, Minnesota, Iowa, Kansas and Massachusetts. Three more are investigating the need—Michigan, Colorado and Idaho.

Reassuring Views
California has had a "standby" relief law on the books since 1945, never brought into use. Some of the other states' laws are more "preparedness" measures than "emergency" acts.

The work relief project, so familiar in the 'thirties, reappeared in Dayton, O., as early as December. Now it has spread to at least six bigger metropolitan areas, reports the American Municipal Association. They are: Detroit, 1,156 persons; Chicago, 155; Cincinnati county, more than 300; Los Angeles, 488; Cleveland, 141; Milwaukee county, 201. The totals are as of April or May; they may have risen.

Yet, most of the state officials directly concerned with relief gave such reassuring analyses as these, from every region of the country:

Lawrence Elegant, junior medical student at Chicago Medical college, smiles at his wife, Joan, and daughter, Linda Mae, after he delivered the baby at home in Chicago before a doctor could arrive. Linda Mae is their first baby.—(AP Wirephoto)

"A slowdown but not disturbing" (New Jersey); relief problem "well in hand" (Minnesota); "not at all critical" (Wisconsin); "signs of recovery" (Maine); tight squeeze but "no crisis" (Oregon); situation "pretty good" (Arkansas); unemployment is "largely seasonal—no alarm" (Massachusetts).

Population Changing
Only in a few cases are this spring's unemployment claims running at a postwar peak. Most are below 1946, when the war plants closed. But New York went over the mark last week with 535,757 claims.

Only a few more—including Tennessee and Pennsylvania—are up to the prewar high for relief costs. In both those states, liberalized payments are the cause.

In many places, swiftly rising

WITNESSES OK EBERHARTER

Washington, June 17 (AP)—A parade of witnesses at a Senate judiciary subcommittee meeting said they think Rep. Eberharter (D.-Pa.) would make a good federal judge. The accusations have been made by John G. Buchanan of the American Bar Association and witnesses Buchanan called. They oppose President Truman's nomination of Eberharter as judge of Western Pennsylvania District.

By direct testimony and under cross-examination Eberharter yesterday answered the charges one by one. Witnesses, including congressmen and judges, followed and said they thought Eberharter not only qualified to be a jurist but would be a good one.

The committee wanted to end the hearing. But Buchanan said he has something else he wants to look into. He wouldn't say what. As a result Rep. McCarron, chairman of the subcommittee, recessed the hearing subject to call.

Eberharter told his story thusly: "There have been times when I drank more than I should have" but much of the previous testimony in that regard has been "exaggerated." "I'm not proud of" an incident in Newark, N. J., four years ago, said Eberharter. But he contended he was not under the influence of liquor at the time. (Witnesses presented by opponents said he was.)

COMPLAINING VOICES RAISED THRU ENGLAND

By HAL BOYLE
London—(AP)—There is the sound of many hammers here in the land of the over-boiled potato.
And the sound of many complaining voices.
There is confidence in the sound of the hammers — and authority. For the hammers are rebuilding battered England.
But in the complaining voices are doubt and uncertainty. There is either dissatisfaction with the way England is going or dismay that it hasn't achieved more for the common man down the new political path it has been traveling.

None Satisfied
Says one young voice of socialism: "Yes, we've got many things we didn't have before. But we English are losing the taste for Scotch whisky and meat, because we get so little. And that is bad for us because whisky and beef made us great."
And a voice from the political past says: "They are trying to do too much here for everybody. It can't be done in a small land that lives by bringing raw materials here for manufacture and shipping the products elsewhere for sale. Ninety per cent of the people will have to go back to living the way they always did. Then the ten per cent with exceptional ability can live as well as their brains and initiative entitle them to."
It is hard for a visitor to weigh and interpret the complaining voices and what they mean to the future of the United Kingdom. But the visitor does get one clearcut impression—that neither the classes nor the masses are satisfied with the present scale of austerity. Both want more than they are getting now of everything — except more shortages.

London Much the Same
I came here with a group of war correspondents revisiting European battle areas on a tour sponsored by the American Overseas Airlines.
London hasn't changed as much as you'd expect. The face of the great gray lady by the Thames is wrapped in scaffolding as workmen restore the beauty pitted by German bombs. They have cleared away the debris of many gutted buildings and turned them into car parking sites.
You have a feeling that England would be lost if everyone broke from the queue at once to grab a bus seat, instead of patiently taking his turn. There'll always be an England, you sense, as long as the English accept the discipline of necessity—and they still do.

Claims Rich Boss Threatened He

Riverside, Calif., June 17 (AP)—"I came at me shouting, 'I'm going to kill you,'" Mrs. Agnes Garner testified at her trial on charges of murdering her wealthy boss, John E. Owen, friend of actress Irene Rich.
The handsome 53-year-old divorcee is accused of shooting Owen, 68, president of the National Apartment House Owners Association, at his lavish Jurupa Hills rancho near here April 22.
"I ran," she testified Wednesday, "grabbed the gun out of his hand, and the next thing I knew he stood up and that right arm of mine was pointing toward the ceiling. It seemed frozen. Mr. Owen was on the floor. I don't know how I got the gun away from him."
Mrs. Garner told the all-woman jury that the death struggle started after she failed to admire a set of cocktail glasses Miss Rich had given Owen.

FUMES IGNITED, GIRL IS BURNED

Allentown, Pa., June 17 (AP)—A little girl was critically burned Thursday when a pan of gasoline caught fire in the kitchen of her home.
Judith Washburn, four, was admitted to Sacred Heart hospital suffering from second and third degree burns that covered 70 per cent of her body.
Fire Chief Clarence H. Marks said the child's grandmother, Mrs. Helen Ludlow gave this version of the accident:
Mrs. Ludlow had placed a dishpan partially filled with gasoline on the stove preparatory to cleaning some paint brushes. Burners of the stove

TRUMAN WANTS BRENNAN FARM PLAN ENACTED

Washington, June 17 (AP)—President Truman said Thurs. he wants the Brennan Farm plan enacted at this session. He predicted Congress will do it.
The President added at a news conference that all of it may not get through this session, but he contended that some of it already has gone through.
He disagreed with some press reports from Democratic party's Des Moines conference early this week that the plan would be deferred until next year for campaign purposes.
The program calls for subsidies to farmers and lower prices for consumers.
Trying To Get It Through
Mr. Truman said some news reports have given the impression that delay was in the cards, but the conference took no such stand. He said that is not the objective at all—that farm legislation is part of the Democratic platform and he is trying to get that through.
Mr. Truman made his comments on farm legislation as bi-partisan were not lighted, but apparently fumes from the gasoline were ignited by the pilot light of the stove.

As the fire started, Mrs. Ludlow lifted the pan to the floor and began pushing it toward the door with her foot, trying to avoid the flames. Just then Judith reached the door and the flames ignited her clothing.
Mrs. John Washburn, mother of the girl, seized her and rolled her in the grass to extinguish the fire. Police and firemen were called to take the child to the hospital.

support built up in Congress behind a bill that would bypass both the administration measure and the Aiken law due to go into effect January 1.
The new proposal would continue rigid 90 per cent of parity price supports on major farm products for another year. The Aiken law sets up a flexible system of supports at 80 to 90 per cent of parity. Parity is a price calculated to be fair alike to producer and consumer.

MILK CONTROL COMMISSION HAS PROBLEMS

Harrisburg, June 17 (AP)—The question of allowing limited free samples of milk to new customers today headed a group of proposals studied by the state Milk Control Commission.

Glenn Spangler, enforcement director, raised the question here yesterday when he reported at a commission hearing on trade practices in the milk industry that the regulation barring free samples is widely violated. The commission issued the ruling earlier this year.

Spangler suggested that the commission should either allow limited distribution of samples or disregard the subject entirely.

He proposed that dealers be allowed to give only one package of milk, either quart or pint, to new residents, to newly-married couples, families with new babies. He also suggested a top limit of $2.50 on premiums such as calendars, baby books or similar items to customers.

Consider Proposals
Some dealers, Spangler said, have been handing out free milk samples to obtain new customers for as long as a week or month at a time. The commission also considered proposals to:

1. Allow Sunday deliveries of milk to wholesale customers such as hotels or restaurants.

2. Bar dealers from giving promissory notes instead of cash in payments for milk.

3. Set up a state-wide uniform formula for class two milk—that used in manufacturing—and define how milk intended for bakeries, confectioners or other food manufacturers should be handled.

4. Prohibit dealers from deducting commission for agents from checks to producers, with the exception of farmer cooperatives.

Flagrant Violations
Spangler told the commission that the ban on Sunday deliveries was "flagrantly violated throughout the entire commonwealth."

Commission agents have made many arrests without avail, he said, while small eating places complain the present regulation works a hardship. They insist their storage space is too small to permit them to purchase enough milk on Saturday to supply their customers.

He listed Philadelphia, Norristown, Reading and other smaller communities as the sites of the wholesale violations.

GOP TROUBLES GO TO COURT

Reading, Pa., June 17 (AP)—A smoldering feud between the Young Republicans of Pennsylvania and the Old Guard of the state GOP has broken into the open.

The differences between the two groups were disclosed publicly yesterday when Frank C. Hilton of Womelsdorf, chairman of the state's Young Republicans, petitioned the Berks county court for an injunction against M. Harvey Taylor, Republican state chairman from Harrisburg.

The Young Republicans seek to restrain Taylor from appointing delegates to the annual convention of the National Federation of Young Republican clubs in Salt Lake City June 23 to 25.

Taylor named 17 delegates to the national convention June 3. All were named as co-defendants in Hilton's suit. Hilton countered by announcing 14 of his own delegates.

The petition for the injunction charges Taylor with "usurping" the functions and authority of the Young Republicans of Pennsylvania, an organization chartered by the Berks county court in 1937. Judge Warren K. Hess set 2 p. m. Monday for Taylor and his 17 co-defendants to show cause why the injunction should not be issued.

The surf bird nests on the mountain tops of central Alaska but winters in South America. For nearly 150 years after the bird was given its scientific name, ornithologists were unable to locate its breeding ground.

WOMAN'S CLUB INSTALLS NEW OFFICERS; HEARS CAPT. THOMAS

Capt. Henry F. Thomas, Gettysburg, a consulting engineer, recently returned from Alaska where he had been assigned to investigate the development of the petroleum resources of that country for the United States Navy, was guest speaker on Wednesday evening at the monthly meeting of the Woman's Community club of Littlestown and vicinity. His theme was, "Names and Customs of Alaska."

He discussed the means of travel, the weather conditions and his contacts with the Eskimos which were pleasant and profitable. He said: "Every man, woman and child should experience at least one week of life in the Arctic. It would teach them the peace and quiet of the world." Various articles made of ivory and pictures of Alaska were displayed by the speaker. He also answered questions by his audience.

Officers elected at the May meeting of the club were installed by Mrs. Emma Haines Mehrling, a past president of the club. They were: President, Mrs. Clayton L. Evans; first vice president, Mrs. Marvin Breighner; second vice president, Miss Rose V. Barker; recording secretary, Mrs. Edward Leister; assistant recording secretary, Mrs. Harry T. Harner; corresponding secretary, Mrs. George DeHoff; and treasurer, Mrs. Richard A. Little.

Hear Yearly Report
Yearly reports were presented by the chairmen of standing committees as follows: Finance, Mrs. Edward T. Richardson, chairman, reported $347.55 from the circles of the club with two circles yet to report with $30 each or a total of $407.55; Membership, Mrs. George Smith, chairman, reported 14 new members during the past year and a loss of six. Reporting for the cheer committee, Mrs. Harry T. Harner, chairman, read a card of thanks from Mrs. Evelyn Staveley. Mrs. E. Roy Kindig, chairman of the welfare committee, reported that they had carried out their annual project of packing Christmas baskets for the needy of the community at Christmas. Hostess and civic service committees, Mrs. Holman L. Sell and Mrs. Walter F. Crouse, chairmen, reported they conducted the annual mother-child covered dish social.

Miss Rose V. Barker, chairman of the Legislation and Citizenship committee reported that her committee had arranged for the annual Mother's Day service which was conducted in the Centenary Methodist church. Mrs. Joseph R. Riden, chairman of the program committee, said work has started on the programs for next year and suggestions from the members will be welcomed. Mrs. Leonard L. Potter reported as chairman of the peace service committee, stating that they had arranged for the annual banquet which was held last November in Silver Run.

Vote Scouts $50
Since the girl scouts of the community are sponsored by the club, they voted a contribution of $10 to each troop or a total of $80 for current needs. In the past it was customary for the club to give the girl scouts a treat while they were in camp. That treat will not be given this summer and the club allocated the $15 for that purpose for future use.

Correspondence was received from Mrs. J. Stewart Williams, president of the State Federation of Women's clubs, requesting a contribution of 10 cents per member toward the expenses of the federation. The club voted this contribution.

Mrs. Maurice Rider and Mrs. Paul Bowman, accompanied on the piano by Miss Louise Dutera sang "Bells of St. Marys," "Believe Me, If All Those Endearing Young Charms" and "She Sleeps, My Lady Sleeps."

Meet Next In September
The meeting was in charge of the retiring president, Mrs. Charles W. Weikert. Mrs. John LeGore presented the secretary's report and Mrs.

Wilbur A. Bankert, the treasurer's report.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting to 52 members and guests by the hostesses consisting of Mrs. Donald B. Coover, chairman, Miss Rose V. Barker, Mrs. Lesbia K. Crouse and Mrs. Edgar Orndorff.

The program which was a sealed program was arranged for by Mrs. F. R. Seibel, chairman, Mrs. Edward T. Richardson, Mrs. Wilbur A. Bankert, Mrs. Claude Snyder, Mrs. Joseph R. Riden and Mrs. Charles W. Weikert.

The club will be in recess during the summer. Meetings will be resumed in September.

EXPECT DELAY ON RATE BOOST

Harrisburg, June 17 (AP)—It was all but certain today that the July 21 effective date of $25,000,000 rate boost asked by the Bell Telephone Co., will be postponed another three months.

The Public Utility Commission now has until then to decide the increase originally asked by Bell last January, but the six-month suspension may have to be extended another three months until October because of the mass of testimony piled up in a long series of hearings.

Jay Eisman, PUC trial examiner, said current hearings will be adjourned today and the final airing will be held June 29 and 30 and July 1.

Under the PUC law, Bell then has 15 days to submit written arguments and complainants, including the cities of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, have 10 days to answer after that. This legal phase alone is likely to push the matter beyond the July 21 date.

Plan Community Dances

Monday and Friday evenings, there will be a volleyball league for women and on Wednesday evening there will be tennis in addition to midget baseball and the adult softball league.

Every Friday night during the program, teen-age community dances will again be conducted in the Crouse Park pavilion from 9 to 11:30 p. m. The first dance will be held Friday, June 24. These dances will be chaperoned by representative adults of the community.

The Littlestown Board of Education asks the cooperation of all parents of the community in this program for the welfare of the children.

Memorial Field's First Game July 4

Manager Marvin "Babe" Brightner of the Littlestown baseball team announced that the first baseball game to be played on the new "Littlestown Memorial Field" will be a night game on Monday, July 4. The contest will be between Littlestown and Gettysburg, an Adams County league game. This game had originally been planned for the morning of July 4, but because of the splendid progress made in completing the new field, arrangements were made to change this game to a night game. It will be the first outdoor athletic contest to be staged at night in Littlestown.

LIONS INSTALL NEW OFFICERS

Approximately 50 were in attendance at the semi-monthly meeting of the Littlestown Lions club Thursday evening at Banker's restaurant when officers for the 1949-1950 club year were installed, and the guest speaker was Luther W. Ritter, secretary of the local Rotary club, who with his wife just completed a three-weeks' tour of western Europe. Mr. and Mrs. Ritter visited England, Holland, Belgium, Switzerland and France. In Paris they spent some time with Mrs. Ritter's sister, a native of Rocky Ridge, Md. Mr. Ritter spoke on the customs and living conditions that impressed him most in the countries visited and stated that although it was their first trip abroad, they experienced no difficulties in the use of foreign money or in being passed through the customs at the respective frontiers. Mr.

Ritter had on display souvenirs from the various countries visited, including wooden shoes from Holland and pictures taken en route. The trip to and from Europe was made in four engine Constellation planes. Past President Lion Kenneth D. James conducted the installation ceremonies when the following officers elected at the June 2 meeting were installed for the coming year: President, John F. Feeser; first vice president, John R. Bloom; second vice president, W. E. Koons; third vice president, Amos L. Spangler; tail twister, John D. Baschore; lion tamer, Paul L. Hollinger; song leader, Charles Tressler; secretary, Chester S. Byers; treasurer, Edgar A. Wolfe; directors for one year, Clayton L. Evans and John W. LeGore; directors for two years, Worthy A. Crabbs and Clarence E. Schroll. The program committee, consisting of Harry J. Koontz, Charles Lemmon and William S. Menges was in charge of the meeting.

The next meeting, to be held on July 7, will be in charge of the publicity committee, which is composed of J. Harvey Pettyjohn, Vernon C. Reaver and William W. Thomas.

Dearborn
FARM EQUIPMENT
Some folks say a cultivator ought to "let air into the soil," "help retain moisture" etc. We say you cultivate to get rid of weeds. The other things are important, but knocking out weeds is number one. And we'll show you the cultivator that does it.
What's more, this cultivator can be attached to the Ford Tractor in about a minute! Now, that is a big advantage... especially when changing from cultivating to mowing and back again. Time surely is money now.
Study the pictures! See how easy cultivating is with Ford Hydraulic Touch Control. Let us demonstrate this cultivator for you... Rigid or spring shanks.
